

U11-A girls' soccer squad wins SRSL League Cup title

Adrianna Deanovic and Sofia Borea scored goals to lift the Oakville Soccer Club girls' under 11-A Academy team to a 2-0 win over Bolton in the South Region Soccer League's League Cup final.

Isabella Maly earned the shutout in net for Oakville, which won 10 games, lost once and tied three times in its first season of 11-on-11 soccer on a full field.

Other members of the team are Haley Griffin, Sami Hayes, Stephanie Semplonius, Brooke Jovanovich, Tiffanie Tos, Genevieve Murray, Taylor Tabry-Dorzak, Isabelle Mastantuono, Megan Nixon, Megan Rykhoff, Sydney Jackson and Paola Gonzalez.

Ted Yee, Peter Uremovich and Dani Bernier coach the team under the guidance of Academy director Shawn Faria and Joe Mattacchione, and Tracey Miller is the manager. The squad is sponsored by J&M Recycling, Canadian Sound, Investors Group and Classic Design.

LEAGUE CUP CHAMPS:
The Oakville Soccer Club's girls' under 11-A Academy team recently won the South Region Soccer League's League Cup with a 2-0 victory over Bolton in the final.

Bernier shining in goal for Crimson Tide

Oakville's Justine Bernier was recently named the Southeast Conference's defensive player of the week.

The junior goalkeeper returned from a national team training camp to lead the Alabama Crimson Tide women's soccer team to back-to-back victories, both by shutout, as the team opened its SEC schedule. Bernier made nine saves as Alabama defeated Mississippi 2-0, the school's first win over the Rebels in six years. On Sunday she made eight saves against Mississippi State in a 2-0 victory, improving her record to 5-0 and lowering her goals-against average to 0.20. Overall, the Crimson Tide is 7-2 this season.

"While she's capable of keeping us in games single-handedly, she is doing more right now by making us a better defensive team through her communication and organization," said Alabama coach Todd Bramble.

With four shutouts this season, she has become the all-time Alabama leader with 13 in her career. She is also closing in on Alabama's all-time record for career saves (301). Bernier needs to stop only 10 shots to eclipse that mark.

It is the third career conference player of the week honour for the Loyola grad, who led the SEC in saves per game (6.44) last season and was named to the all-SEC second team.

Kadet posts first NCAA shutout

In other NCAA women's soccer news involving local residents, freshman goalie Lauren Kadet notched her first collegiate shutout as the University of Maryland Baltimore County Retrievers defeated Vermont 2-0 Sunday to open America East conference play.

Kadet, a St. Thomas Aquinas grad, made eight saves to become the first Retrievers freshman to post a shutout since October 2005.

"It's never easy to go on the road and get results, especially in the conference," said UMBC coach Alyssa Radu. "We attacked and created really well and for 90 minutes our defensive line and our keeper were solid."
