

Rookieball A's finalists in St. Thomas

The Oakville A's minor rookieball team reached the finals of its first tournament of the season recently in St. Thomas.

The first-year rep team of seven- and eight-year-old boys went 3-0 in its division, defeating teams from Milton, Whitby and North London. The A's then routed East York 18-1 before dropping a 24-13 decision to North York in the final.

Strong spring for Appleby sports

It's been a successful spring season for Appleby College's sports teams.

Five Blue Dogs teams recently earned medals at their respective Conference of Independent Schools Athletic Associations championship tournaments.

Appleby's under-14 girls' soccer team earned Division 2 gold at the CISAA championships, defeating Richmond Hill's Holy Trinity 2-0 in the final.

The Blue Dogs' senior boys' golf team, senior boys' slow-pitch squad, under-14 boys' rugby club and senior boys' rugby team all collected silver at CISAA tournaments.

"It's been an exciting season," said Sharon Creelman, director of athletics at Appleby College. "We are incredibly proud of our teams for their performances."
