You will be responsible for managing and expanding relationships with existing clients and prospecting for new business opportunities.

WHAT WE NEED YOU TO DO

- Consult with clients regularly to maintain and grow existing relationships
- Use your sales skills to actively prospect and develop new business
- Be competitive and driven to consistently achieve and exceed monthly sales targets

ABOUT YOU

- Strong sales and customer service skills
- Strong communication and interaction skills (verbal and written)
- You have the ability to persuade with conviction and close business
- Adaptable to new ideas and strategies
- Well organized
- Can work independently, but also integrate well in a team environment.
- Basic understanding of digital media
- Marine industry experience would be an asset
- Working and functional knowledge of the MS Windows and Office suites, Excel, and PowerPoint.

WHAT'S IN IT FOR YOU?

- The opportunity to be part of an exciting company with great earning potential in a fun industry
- The opportunity to develop your advertising experience with other talented and experienced people
- Benefits and car allowance

As part of the Advertising Sales role, you will be required to handle credit card information. Metroland Media is a PCI compliant company and requires people in this role to take PCI training to handle cards in a safe and compliant manner.

Looking for your next career challenge? If so, Metroland Media Group is the place to be! Interested candidates are requested to forward their resume to szawadzki@metroland.com by May 3rd, 2013. Please reference "Marine Advertising Account Manager" in the subject line.

Metroland is an equal opportunity employer. We thank all applicants for their interest; however only those selected for an interview will be contacted.

Obituaries

BRUCE, John Husband, father, grandfather, entrepreneur, sailor, veteran and gentleman, John Bruce passed away peacefully of old age on April 18, 2013 in Oakville at the age of 92. John is survived by his wife, children and grandchildren, who all adored him greatly.

John was born on the island of Trondra in the Shetland Islands in 1921. As a young boy, he lived a simple life, and his connection to the water started at a young age, sailing to mainland Shetland with his father for supplies the family needed. He grew up quickly. One morning, shortly after his 14th birthday, John woke up to find that his parents (Helen and David) had a bag packed for him. He was off to sea, to work and send home money to support the family. John spent many years at sea and had the stories to show for it: chasing whales from the Arctic to the Cape of Good Hope; driving fuel tankers during WWII; and nearly dying while painting a hull (during all that time at sea, he never learned to swim).

John moved to Canada in 1954 and met the love of his life, and best friend, Lee. They were together until his passing 60 years later, and had 4 children: Brenda, Barb (Dan Ferrone), Jayne (Jay Vandevonne) and Robert (Barb). John had two children from a previous marriage: John and Pat (Gilles). John and Lee settled in Oakville, Ontario to raise their family. John was a born entrepreneur and risk taker, and always had the right tool to fix any problem (in his business enterprises and his personal life). Despite his lack of formal education, he founded several small businesses, the most enduring of which was John Bruce Boats, operating out of Metro Marine at Bronte Harbour. JBB was a successful enterprise that supported his family and continued his lifelong connection to the water. For over 50 years, John bought, fixed and sold hundreds of boats. He was especially fond of the beautiful wooden Chris Craft and Owens yachts, many of which he used personally and on which he and his family formed so many memories. Some of John's favorite boats are still in use on Lake Ontario, a fact that brought a smile to his face, even in his last days. John's savvy negotiating techniques, refined over many years, are still legendary in boat yards around the Great Lakes. (Seller: "I'd rather burn my boat before I sold it to you for that price!") JB: "Sir, here are some matches and here is my card, please call me if you change your mind").

Whether it was at the Ontario Place marina, the Toronto Islands, his condo in Panama City, Florida or at the numerous family gatherings throughout the years, John was happiest when he was surrounded by his family. He was as supportive a husband, father and grandfather as you could hope for, always ready to lend an ear or a hand. The entire family always felt a bit stronger in his presence. "Grandpa" will be greatly missed by his grandchildren: Matthew, Marco, Danielle, Alana, Nicole, Elyssa, JT, Cole, John, Joey and Kelly.

Visitation will be on Sunday April 21, 7:00 to 9:00 pm, Kopriva Taylor Funeral Home, 64 Lakeshore Rd W, Oakville, Ontario. The funeral service will be on Monday April 22, 1:00pm at St. Paul's United Church, 454 Rebecca St., Oakville, Ontario. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in John's memory to Big Brothers Big Sisters Halton. Online condolences may be made at www.koprivataylor.com.

Upcoming Events

Passed away peacefully on Wednesday, April 10, 2013 in Cowichan, B.C. at 86 years old where he resided after retirement with his wife of almost 20 years, Gail. Ernie was a long time member of the Oakville Rod and Gun Club where he especially enjoyed organizing several special events for children. He was a long time business partner with John Tyhus at MEFAB Products on Speers Road in Oakville. "You can't win'em all!" Good bye Mr. Taylor.
