GRANT, Isabella Walker.

On Monday August 19th Isabella passed away peacefully at Oakville-Trafalgar Hospital in her ninetyeth year. Beloved wife of the late John Grant, mother of Byron and wife Ann, grandmother to Alexandra, Nikita and Ben and wife Leah and great-grandmother to her pride and joy, Emma. Isabella will be greatly missed by her two brothers Alvin and Mervin (Sharon), and particularly by her two nieces Nancy-Jane Kendall (Bob) and Sandra Chalmers (Bill) and her nephew Mervyn Lees. Cremation has taken place. Isabella's ashes will be scattered with her husband's on the moors of Scotland near Grantown at a later date. In accordance with her wishes no funeral or service will follow. A memorial service, however, will take place on Monday September 2nd at Oakville Funeral Home, 56 Lakeshore Rd West in Oakville at 3:00 pm. Isabella valued her friends and family, and all her friends and the employees at her residence; Heritage Place. She loved music and was proud to be the first "patron" of the Celtic Fiddle Orchestra of Southern Ontario. Isabella also loved the people at her Salvation Army Church. If desired, in lieu of flowers, donations in Isabella's name to any of these two organizations would be appreciated. The Salvation Army Church 2090 Prospect Street Burlington On L7R 1Y9 or The Celtic Fiddle Orchestra of Southern Ontario 18 Pioneer Crescent, Kitchener On N2P2L2.
