

Picasso: Music and Images at Central Baptist Church

The Oakville Chamber Orchestra will debut its first multimedia presentation on Saturday at 7:30 p.m. at the Central Baptist Church.

"Picasso: Music and Images" will use images from Pablo Picasso's artistic periods accompanied by the Picasso Suite by Harry Somers.

The program also features 18-year-old Andrew Aarons playing Mozart's Piano Concerto No. 24.

Aarons, a talented pianist and harpsichordist, has won numerous awards and honours since age seven. He won first place at the Ontario Music Festivals Association, the Kiwanis Music Festival, and in the Provincial Finals of the Canadian Music Competition for four consecutive years. In 2001, he was invited to perform before Prime Minister Jean Chretien.

Last May, Aarons made his Carnegie Hall debut when he performed by invitation in the "Young Virtuosos" recital.

Most recently, he was guest soloist in the Brott Autumn Festival, performing with the National Academy Orchestra in Hamilton.

Tickets can be purchased at Bookers Bookstore and Atelier Grigorian in downtown Oakville.

Tickets cost $12 for students/seniors and $15 for adults.

Video workshop at Oakville Galleries

Marking Time, a free video workshop for family and friends, is being held at the Oakville Galleries in Gairloch Gardens on Saturday.

The workshop is being held in context with the Gwen MacGregor exhibition and will examine what time means to different people.

Through cinematic techniques, an amateur will guide participants in visually representing their sense of time with video. The workshop runs from 2-5 p.m. For more information or to register, contact 905-844-4402, ext. 30.

Fine dining at The Three Judges

ADVERTISING FEATURE

When was the last time you walked into a pub and heard this?

The special of the day will be Grilled Salmon with artichoke mashed potatoes, grilled green onions, vermouth and ginger beurre blanc.

This mouth-watering special and other daily delicacies can be found at The Three Judges on Lakeshore Road. Still a pub, but with more of an emphasis on high-end quality food, the pub has been completely renovated and features a new tantalizing menu.

Caramelized apples atop a grilled breast of chicken adorn the same page as your pub favourites like nachos, chicken fingers, buffalo wings, and garlic bread - enjoy all at pub prices.

Vegetarian plates are also offered, such as their ample salads, fresh vegetables on a baguette, veggie burgers, and daily soups and pastas that cater to every diet.

This brand new menu is compliments of their chef, who has worked under the top chefs in Canada and in major hotels in Toronto.

And it's not only about the quality of the food (though he does make everything from scratch), it's also about presentation. I had the pleasure of having appetizers, lunch and of course dessert, and all were presented equally impressive. So it's no surprise that customers repeatedly ask to meet the chef.

The atmosphere is comfortable and the staff is friendly. The bar holds an extensive list of imported drafts, play darts, watch the Leafs, or listen to live entertainment every Friday night. All this in the heart of downtown Oakville.

To show their appreciation to loyal customers, The Three Judges has introduced a VIP card that gives you 15 per cent off the main food menu, not only for you, but everyone you're with too. So if you bring along eight guests, you all get 15 per cent off. The best part is - it costs nothing.

Enjoy your next meal at The Three Judges, 167 Lakeshore Rd. E., 905-849-7898.
