Deaths McADAM, Mary Corrigan - Mary McAdam in her 85th year passed away suddenly, early in the morning on December 23, 2003 at Oakville-Trafalgar Memorial Hospital. Beloved wife of Major John McAdam (Rtd), for 64 years. Dear Mother to Patricia of Oakville and John of Catharines. Treasured Grandmother to Fiona Beattle and Capt. Craig Murray of Oakville and John and Theresa McAdam of St. Catharines, delightful Grandmother-in-law to Alan Beattle and Margaret McQuarrie-Murray. Devoted Great-Grandmother to Alexandra, Kira and Dana Beattie, Fiona Murray and Taneisha and Quiona McAdam. Caring is the best word to describe Mary. She cared passionately and deeply about the well-being of everyone. Her devotion led her to leave her home in Scotland with her husband John, to oin their family in their new lives in Canada. Her ntelligence, love of the arts, of music and dancing, her sense of humour and her devotion to order defined her life. These qualities are secondary to the love she bestowed on her family and friends. Always there, always ready, always willing to do all that she could and more. When you spoke to her she truly listened, a quality rarely found. She taught, guided and loved without condition. She will be sorely missed forever and always in our hearts. Mary was a proud employee of the Oakville-Trafalgar Memorial Hospital for 15 years where her kindness and compassion was felt by all Mary found the work and the people to be very important to her; in keeping with that please make all donations on her behalf to the hospital. The service was held at the
