True enthusiasm for their art, caring service for their clients and superior expertise in their field are just some of the many attributes that Sandra Valente and Rosa Lages have been able to share with their new and longtime clients alike. After a brief stint at downtown Oakville's Salon Monzer, both stylists are returning to their old stomping ground which is closer to home - Erin Mills Town Centre in west Mississauga (Eglinton & Erin Mills Parkway). Sandra's stylistic talent will grace NRG, one of Mississauga's top salons, while Rosa will join the staff of the prestigious L'Attitudes, located nearby.

Sandra and Rosa share a rich history in their trade. Having applied her craft in salons from Miami to New York and from France to England, Sandra feels the decision to return to NRG will be greeted with enthusiasm from her longtime clientele. "NRG is home to me. It's an environment that is comfortable and engaging but also on the cutting edge in the industry. Everything from the staff to the treatments exhibits a level of quality and professionalism that I know my clients appreciate. They are friends and help to make everyday into a special experience for me."

Rosa's move to L'Attitudes represents a new chapter in her long and distinguished career. Born in France, she began working with hair at just 17 years of age. Arriving in Canada at the age of 20, Rosa has dedicated much of her professional life to shaping and styling hair to reflect the ideals and identities of her varied and diverse client base, specializing in 'up-dos', the stylish lifting and sweeping of hair for special events and occasions. Rosa operated her own exclusive studio for 16 years before deciding to go into semi-retirement. "I love this business far too much to ever walk away," Rosa explains.

Their positive approach is echoed in their philosophy towards their work. "Life should be about simplicity. Be natural, effortless and chic. If you know how to be simple with your hair, and with your personal style, you'll have the confidence to do anything you set your mind to."

Sandra and Rosa have enjoyed the beauty of downtown Oakville and thank the Oakville community and Salon Monzer for their support. Visit Sandra Valente today at NRG in the Erin Mills Town Centre (5100 Erin Mills Parkway) or book your appointment by calling (905) 608-1480. Rosa Lages can be reached at L'Attitudes in the same mall, and appointments can be booked by calling (905) 569-3550. They look forward to seeing you soon and assisting in all of your styling and makeover needs.
