

Tops in Tri-County

MINOR PEEWEE CHAMPS: The Oakville minor peewee A Rangers were hot down the stretch of the minor hockey season, winning eight of 10 games before meeting Burlington in the Tri-County final and sweeping the Eagles with a pair of 3-2 wins. Nick LaBrosse, Justin Bowie and Michael Burton scored in the first game of the series, with Billy Ratcliffe earning the win in goal. Tony Palumbo, Connor Bevington and Bowie tallied in Game 2 and Luke MacKinnon recorded the victory. Other members of the team are Josh Rogers, Sean Delacourt, Ryan Dunn, Mackenzie Conner, Sean Ferguson, Chris Sayers, Jonathon Harrison, Tanner Barwell, Michael Buck and Craig MacQueen. Mark Bevington, Bary Ferguson, Gilles LaBrosse and Dave Rogers coach the team, Graham Burton is the trainer and Karen MacQueen is the manager.

Dawson moves into NLL scoring lead

Dan Dawson of the Arizona Sting is the National Lacrosse League's most recent player of the week.

SPORTSBRIEFS

The six-foot-five, 225-pound Oakville native had six goals and 10 assists in two games to surge to the top of the NLL scoring race. Dawson has a career-best 92 points, one ahead of Buffalo's John Tavares. The two snipers are set to meet when Arizona plays in Buffalo Saturday. With three games remaining in the season, Dawson also leads the league in goals with 42, one more than Rochester's John Grant.

Dawson had two goals and seven assists in a 14-8 victory over Colorado last Friday. One night later he scored four goals — including the game winner — and added three assists in a 10-9 win over San Jose. The victories improved Arizona to 9-4 this season and allowed the Sting to clinch a playoff spot.

Edmondson rink starts strong

victory over New Brunswick's Gord Snow Wednesday to move into a tie for second place at the Canadian Open Masters Curling Championships at the Glendale Golf and Country Club.

Edmondson was 4-2 through six draws, trailing only Nova Scotia's Peter MacPhee, who was a perfect 6-0.

Edmondson dropped his opened 6-2 to Hank Ens of British Columbia. He came back to post victories over the Yukon's Allen Gee (11-5), Martin Bailey of Manitoba (6-3) and Al Gemmill of Northern Ontario (8-2) before falling 9-4 to Keith Kaufman of Alberta.

His win over Snow came in convincing fashion, ending after Edmondson stole three in the fifth end to take a 9-2 lead.

The top three teams in the 10-rink field were to advance to the Friday's semifinal with the final Saturday. Results were not available at press time.
