HARDMAN, W.A. “Bill” (Oakville, Ontario) — Cadet Major in the Georgetown Cadet Corps. Awarded “Outstanding Cadet” in 1954 at the National Army Cadet Camp at Banff. Reserve Sergeant in U Company, the Lorne Scots. Passed 14 May 2007 in his 71st year at the Oakville Trafalgar Memorial Hospital following a lengthy illness. Born in Georgetown, Ontario, 2 February 1937 to the late Robert and Ethel Hardman (nee Spence). Loving husband to Jane. Father to Rod. Grandfather “Papa” to Emma (age 4). Bill enjoyed a long working life with Cotton Bros., Rothen’s, Boyce-Murphy, Proctor-Silex and Rival Mfg. — ultimately “semi-retiring” to a small kitchen shop in Port Credit. Many thanks to friends and customers met along the way. Remembered by good friends at Rameses Shrine (Founders Unit 1888), Royal Order of Jesters (Court 85) and Krona Club. Thanks to the wonderful staff at Northridge Long Term Care and Oakville Trafalgar Memorial Hospital, who, despite all challenges, cared for Bill with love and preserved his dignity. By Bill’s wish, there will not be a public memorial and in place of flowers, if desired, he would prefer a contribution to his granddaughter’s education fund (Made payable to Jane Hardman in trust for Emma Courtney Hardman). Arrangements entrusted to Ward Funeral Home, 109 Reynolds Street, Oakville (905-844-3221).

DUNK, John — Suddenly at home in Burlington on Sunday, May 13, 2007 at the age of 63. Remembered by Jacqui, Sarah and David. Private family service and interment to take place. (Arrangements entrusted to S M I T H’S F U N E R A L H O M E, Burlington, 905-832-3535).”
