Obituary

LAYT, George H. G.- In his 89th year, peacefully at Ian Anderson House (palliative care hospice), Oakville Ont., following recent health complications. George was born in 1919 in Middlesbrough England. During WWII George earned the distinguished Flying Cross for his efforts flying with an RAF squadron of Canadian built DeHavilland Mosquito aircraft. After immigrating to Canada following WWII George ultimately achieved the position of Executive Vice President of Stelco. After his retirement George continued to pursue an ongoing passion for world travel, carefully documenting and photographing his varied experiences. He also volunteered his time to Oakville Trafalgar Memorial Hospital and the Joseph Brant Hospital in Burlington. Predeceased by his first wife Hilda (Graham) Layt and his second wife Jean (Tolhurst) Layt, he will be lovingly remembered by his many lifetime friends, his nieces Orlaith (Graham) Duke and Clodagh (Graham) Cameron, his nephew Edward Graham, his stepsons Cliff and Larry Read, his close personal friend Helen Prowse, and their families. A memorial and celebration of George's life will be held on Saturday, February 2, 12:00 noon at Mississauga Golf and Country Club, 1725 Mississauga Road N., Mississauga, Ont. In lieu of flowers, a donations to Ian Anderson House, P.O. Box 61034, 511 Maple Grove Drive, Oakville, Ont. L6J 7P5 would be appreciated.

THE Oakville Beaver would like to express sincere and heart-felt condolences to those who have lost their loved ones.
