

Venom rolls in Rochester

The Oakville Venom major atom girls won all four of their games at a recent basketball tournament in Rochester, N.Y., earning gold at the competition.

Oakville started slowly in the final against Hamilton's Blessed Sacrament, but still managed to pull out a 33-29 victory.

Earlier in the tournament, the Venom beat Hamilton Transway 32-22 and knocked off a pair of New York teams, North Coast (36-20) and PYB (38-15).

Members of the team are Tiffany McNeil, Liana Hughes, Hayley Suchanek, Jaelyne Kirkpatrick, Marina Painco, Amanda Horne, Audrey Popa, Lisa Sullivan, Claire Bannister, Mara Briscoe, Chenedy Wiles, Sophia Sanvictores and Vanessa Garcia.

Toney McNeil, Mario Garcia and Yuki Carter coach the Venom.

Wranglers wring out gold in Vaughan

Balanced scoring and strong team defence lifted the Oakville minor atom red Wranglers to the championship at the recent Marshall Drewnowsky Memorial Select Tournament in Vaughan.

Oakville went 4-0-1 at the competition, allowing only three goals while scoring 13. Tournament MVP Aidan Hosein recorded two shutouts, including a 1-0 blanking of the Georgetown Raiders in the title game.

Oakville had tied Georgetown 1-1 in its opening game of the tournament. The Wranglers then downed Vaughan 7-1 and Brampton 2-0 to reach the semifinal round, where they edged Thornhill 2-1.

Also contributing to the gold-medal win were Cody Bertin, Benjamin Hosein, Shane Cullen, Jacob Hosein, Carson Margolese, Greg Muschett, Kyle Renpenning, Francis Guay, Hunter Melito, Justin Verdon, Sheldon Nunes, Ryan Rudderham, Ethan Wilson, Christopher Avery and Pearce Feijo.

Steve Margolese, John Verdon, Dean Renpenning and Phil Guay coach the team, and Mijanou Verdon is the team MOM.
