HR Generalist

• one-year maternity leave contract

Working with and reporting to the Vice President, Human Resources, you will assist with the implementation of our human resources strategy and processes. You will be responsible for recruitment, talent management, staff, and management development. You will also be involved in salary and benefits administration, policy development, and employment law compliance. You have at least five years' progressive experience in a manufacturing environment and are a graduate of a recognized human resources program. Your CHRP designation is complemented by exposure to labour relations in a unionized manufacturing setting.

Maintenance Stores Assistant

• three to six-month contract

You will be responsible for performing storeroom keeper duties including spare parts inventory control, organizing the new and existing maintenance store, data input, and issuing/receiving/closing purchase orders. You are self-motivated with exceptional written, oral, and organizational skills. Excellent interpersonal, teamwork, and communication abilities along with computer proficiency in MS Office at an intermediate level are also requirements for this position. You have a high school diploma or post-secondary education in a related field and are able to perform light lifting activities. Familiarity in an industrial environment and maintenance stores experience are assets.

These are unique opportunities to join a highly-developed technical organization as we expand in North America. Please apply in writing to:
