Relay for Life, the Canadian Cancer Society's overnight fundraiser, is Friday. It will take place from 7 p.m. to 7 a.m. at Appleby College on Lakeshore Road, just east of Fourth Line.

The fundraiser is an opportunity to get together with family and friends and celebrate cancer survivors, remember loved ones lost to cancer and fight back in the hope of finding a cure for the disease.

Last year, the Oakville Relay raised more than $480,000. It involved 150 teams, 1,580 people and 183 cancer survivors. Teams can register by calling the Oakville Unit at 905-845-5231 or online at www.cancer.ca/relay. For more information, visit www.cancer.ca/relay.

Relay For Life starts at dusk and ends the next morning — paralleling the journey of a patient with cancer.

Teams choose names, some even dress in costume. After setting up their campsite, team members take turns walking the relay track amid entertainment and activities.

It all begins with a survivors' lap and continues through the night amid glowing luminaries dedicated to those who have fought or are battling cancer and wraps up the following morning.
