

Bats inconsistent as A's drop two of out of three games

The Oakville A's offence was missing in action, only to suddenly emerge and quickly disappear again. That lack of consistency saw the Ontario Baseball Association major squad drop two of their last three games.

The A's were a strike away from victory when St. Catharines got back-to-back hits to capitalize on an Oakville error and win 4-3 win.

The A's struck first with an RBI single by Courtney Morales in the third and Oakville added another run in the fifth. St. Catharines tied the game with a two-run triple in the seventh but Oakville regained the lead on a wild pitch in the top of the ninth before St. Catharines rallied for the win.

That spoiled a strong effort by Gord Robertson, who allowed just two earned runs over eight innings while striking out five.

After collecting just five hits in Thursday's game, Oakville pounded out 15 in a wild 18-16 win over Etobicoke. This time it was Oakville rallying with six runs in the ninth to win after Etobicoke had scored seven in the previous inning.

Derek Pogue had three hits and drove in four runs while Conrad Bach brought in three runs with his four hits. Marc Walton had three RBIs. Mark Walton earned the victory with two innings of relief work.

Oakville's bats again went silent Monday as they managed just five hits — none after the third inning — in a 3-1 loss to Erindale. Walton's second-inning homer accounted for the A's lone run.

Julian Richards took the loss despite giving up just three runs in seven innings. Matt Chisamore tossed two no-hit innings of relief.

The A's wrap up the season with a flurry of seven games in seven days, including home games Saturday at 4:30 p.m. against Etobicoke and possibly 7:30 p.m. against Brampton as well as against Dundas Monday at 7:30 p.m. All games are at Oakville Park on McCraney St. E.

Brady to join Mount Allison

Iroquois Ridge grad Ryan Brady was among the players announced by Mount Allison Mounties football coach Kelly Jeffrey as a part of the team's recruiting class for the coming season.

The rebuilding Mounties finished with a 2-6 record last season and made their second playoff appearance in 10 years.
