

Local group presents play

The Poor Cousin Theatre Company presents The Killing of Sister George from Nov. 5-7 at 7:30 p.m. at the Oakville Centre for Performing Arts' studio theatre.

A scathing examination of the public and private lives of so-called 'cultural icons'. Sister George is a beloved character on a popular BBC soap opera, a cheerful nurse who bicycles about the countryside singing hymns and doing good.

In private life, June Buckridge the actress is a swaggering, foul-mouthed, alcoholic lesbian in a long-term relationship with waifish Alice "Childie" McNaught.

Due to low ratings, cutbacks and June's own bad behavior, the BBC decides to kill Sister George on the series. A visit from Miss Mercy Croft, a no-nonsense network executive bearing the bad news sends George into meltdown.

Tickets cost $24.50.
