LIND, Anne A. W. (1916-2010) - Anne Armistead Williams Lind, 93, widow of Alexander Udny Lind, died January 17, 2010 at "Point o' View," Oakville, Ontario, Canada, her home for the past 58 years. Born August 12, 1916 in Richmond, Virginia, she was the youngest and last surviving of the nine children of Langbourne Meade Williams and Susanne Catherine Nöiting Williams. In 1942 she joined the American Red Cross and was stationed in England, with the famed USAF 4th Fighter Group. She was married in 1944 to Alexander Udny Lind, a Royal Navy Lieutenant. After the war they moved to the Far East. In 1952 they moved to Canada where she was active in church, school, community and civic affairs. A devoted member of St. Jude's Anglican Church, she was a member of the Oakville Club and a volunteer at the Oakville Trafalgar Memorial Hospital. She is survived by her daughter, Plum Lind Johnson of Toronto, and three sons; Robin Lind, of Manakin-Sabot, Christopher Lind, and Victor Lind, both of Toronto; also nine grandchildren: Virginia Johnson, Jessica Johnson, Carter Johnson, Frankie Abralind, Maria Lind Tribble, Emily Lind, Aaron Lind, Hannah Lind and Nicholas Lind; three great-grandchildren: Thatcher and Lochlan Tribble and Ben Trochatos; and a host of nieces and nephews. For many years she was devotedly cared for by Pelmo and Tashi Tuedul and Wosal Adaytsang. She was predeceased by her husband Alex and their eldest son, Sandy. For full obituary and photos of Anne please see www.koprivataylor.com. A funeral will be held at St. Jude's Anglican Church (905-844-3972), 160 William Street, Oakville, on Friday, January 22, 2010 at 2 p.m.
