year before I started to dream about playing for Canada. That's how much passion and desire I have for the game."

Kinley is the second member of the McNicoll family to represent Canada. Her brother Brennan, who plays for the TFC Academy and has accepted a scholarship at Rutgers, played at last year's CONCACAF Men's Under-17 Championship.

Kinley made her national team debut at the Four Nations Tournament at the beginning of March, playing 54 minutes over three games. But the 16-year-old had watched all three of Canada's group matches at the CONCACAF tournament — a 4-1 win over Jamaica, a 2-1 win over Panama and a 1-0 loss to Mexico — before

Gymnast wins two events at Wild Rose Invitational

Oakville's Sabrina Gill won both the vault and floor in the junior division at the Wild Rose Invitational in Edmonton.

Gill, a member of the Canadian junior gymnastics team, scored a 13.925 on vault and a 13.850 on floor. She also placed fourth on the parallel bars and was fourth all-around.

Two other Oakville Gymnastics Club members made event finals. Jordyn Pedersen was fourth on vault and fifth on beam and Silvia Colussi-Pelaez was eighth on floor.

being inserted into the starting lineup for the first time in the crucial semifinal match with the U.S.

McNicoll played the entire game — a scoreless draw that Canada won in penalty kicks — and then again drew the starting assignment in the final.

The Under-17 World Cup won't be played until the fall, but McNicoll still has a busy summer ahead of her. She's currently on a one-week tour with the provincial team that will see the team play U.S. college teams, such as Central Michigan and the University of Indiana. There will be other provincial team games throughout the summer, a pair of training camps with the national team, and when time allows, games with her club team, the Burlington Heat.
