

Squirt Angels earn first medal of year

The Oakville Angels squirt '99 team whipped Lancaster 11-1 to win the Silver Division championship at the Coca-Cola Classic girls' softball tournament near Buffalo last weekend.

Oakville attended the tournament with only 10 players, but that didn't prove to be a problem as the Angels beat out 15 other teams in the 10-under division.

Jamie Jang and Olivia Elliott handled the bulk of the pitching duties for the Angels, with Jang adding a home run at the plate. Catchers Rachel Nevins and Emily Muller held opponents' running games in check and kept passed balls to a minimum.

Jenna Locke played a solid first base and contributed powerful hitting through the tournament, while Ashley Eichinger, Hannah Cavanagh and Brynn Vella formed a successful platoon at second base. Erica Chan handled shortstop for the Angels and Muller played mostly third base, both handling the larger U.S. diamond with ease.

CLASSIC WIN: The Oakville Angels squirt '99 softball team won the Coca-Cola Classic tournament last weekend near Buffalo.

in the semifinal game, stealing home.

The versatility of Emma Webster, in her first year of rep, was also valuable during the tournament as she played several positions and contributed key hits.

Nicole Rivait and Erynn Gebhardt also play for the Angels but weren't able to attend the tournament.

The gold was Oakville's first medal win of the season.

Third gold for minor mosquito A's

The Oakville A's minor mosquito AAA baseball team won its own Oakville Minor Baseball Association tournament last weekend.

The A's defeated Scarborough, London, Bolton and Etobicoke to reach the championship game, where they pounded Scarborough 14-1.

Oakville has now won three tournament championships this season.

Members of the team are Matthew Stone, Andrew MacGrandle, Paul Costin, Tanner Elson, Jordan Gamble, Luke Seidel, Ethan Hammond, Evan McIntyre, Tyler Sagl, Luke Raczewski, Eric Cerantola and Carter Pauley.

A's coaches are John Raczewski, Ryan Seidel, Allen Elson, Richard Gamble and Drew Hammond.
